At the Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science

FROST
SCIENCE

Celebrate in an underwater wonderland. Entertain under the stars. Impress with a laser spectacular.

The Phillip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science, Miami's newest cultural institution, offers incredible surroundings and special experiences, including flexible science exhibitions, three-level Aquarium, 250-seat full-dome Frost Planetarium, living rooftop and more. Located in Downtown Miami's waterfront Museum Park, in the heart of the city's Arts & Entertainment District, Frost Science is conveniently located for corporate, nonprofit and social events.

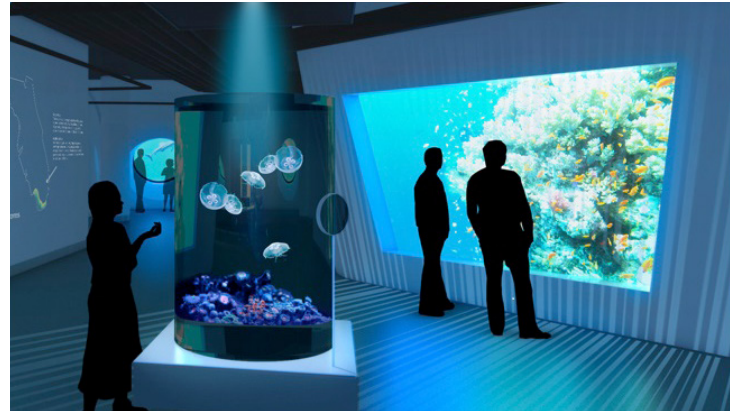

Frost Science is one of the few places globally to house a planetarium, aquarium and science museum on one dynamic campus. Fully equipped with the most advanced audiovisual and production capabilities, Frost Science offers dramatic indoor and outdoor event space with spectacular views designed by Grimshaw Architects.

Host your next event at Frost Science and enjoy fine international cuisine from our exclusive onsite caterer, SAVOR. Leave the details to our team of experts to create a custom menu for your group, specializing in sustainable ingredients and an emphasis on freshness.

Wow your guests with the most exciting and dynamic setting in South Florida.

Aquarium

From Gulf Stream sharks to the tiny organisms found within coral, the three-level Aquarium is a trip through the beautiful water habitats of South Florida unlike anything found in Miami.

Start your event on the outdoor ‘Vista’ level, with spectacular views of Museum Park, the Port of Miami and the Downtown Miami skyline while you marvel at hammerhead sharks and touch a stingray. Descend to the lower ‘Dive’ level where your guests will enjoy creative cocktails with stunning underwater views and interactive stations.

On the “Deep” level, mix and mingle or dine directly underneath the 500,000-gallon Gulf Stream Aquarium, an underwater wonderland with devil rays and sharks cruising overhead via a 30-foot oculus lens, creating a truly immersive event experience.

MEET THE CHEF

Frost Science Executive Chef Tony Terho

Chef Tony Terho is in the business of creating memorable dining experiences with his vibrant and creative approach to using fresh, sustainable and seasonal ingredients. He brings over 16 years of experience to the Patricia and Phillip Frost Museum of Science, where he serves as the executive chef for SAVOR, a division of SMG, the exclusive food and beverage provider of museum. Chef Terho oversees all aspects of the culinary team including developing the menu for the museum's café, Food@Science, where he maintains a strong commitment to farm-to-table freshness that features locally grown products.

Prior to joining Frost Science, Chef Terho was the executive chef at EmKo's culinary studio in Palm Beach, Jereve. Additionally, he has led culinary teams in some of the most prestigious establishments in the area including HMF at The Breakers Resort, the posh Buccan and the historic Mar-A-Lago club. Previously, Chef Terho was a private chef in Ohio for the Chairman and CEO of a local multi-billion dollar company, where he oversaw every culinary detail from daily menu development to growing his own select ingredients in the garden.

Chef Terho knew he wanted to be in the kitchen from early on. Originally from Finland, he began his career at the Florida Culinary Institute and eventually made his way back home to refine his skills at the renowned Finnish restaurant, Strampen. The chef currently has his own cooking show on the Pursuit Channel called "Voracious," which focuses on innovative cooking technologies and recipes for outdoor enthusiasts.

When he's not dreaming up and executing his diners' next culinary adventure, Chef Terho enjoys fishing, surfing, cars and spending time with his wife and young daughter.
